Sabbath Thought

Eccl. 10:4, “If the spirit of the ruler rises against you, Do not leave your post; For conciliation pacifies great offenses.” A modern version says, “If a ruler becomes angry with you, don’t resign your position. If you remain calm, you can make up for serious offenses” (GW).

Believer’s Commentary explains, “If a ruler explodes in anger at you, it is best not to quit in a huff. It is better to be meek and submissive. This will be more apt to pacify him and atone for serious offenses.”
