Sabbath Thought

Eccl. 10:12-13, "The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious, but the lips of a fool shall swallow him up; the words of his mouth begin with foolishness, and the end of his talk is raving madness." A modern version, "Wise words bring approval, but fools are destroyed by their own words" (GW).

Believer's Commentary notes, "The words of a wise man's mouth bring him favor because they are gracious. The words of a fool prove to be his downfall. He may begin with harmless nonsense, but by the time he is through, he is engaging in raving madness."
