Sabbath Thought

Eccl. 10:14, "A fool also multiplies words. No man knows what is to be; who can tell him what will be after him?"

Believer's Commentary states, "A fool doesn't know when to stop. Words, words, words. He talks on and on as if he knew everything, but he doesn't. His endless chatter almost inevitably includes boasts of what he will do in the future. He is like the rich fool who said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease; eat, drink, and be merry' (Lk. 12:18-19). But he does not know what is going to happen next. He would be better advised to say, 'If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that'" (James 4:15).

SABBATH AT IRVINE REGIONAL PARK APRIL 26

On April 26 our congregation (along with some from the Los Angeles and Redlands congregations) will again be able to enjoy a Sabbath in the Park (our 28th) at Irvine Regional Park in Orange. We have reserved the same secluded and beautiful Coyote Corner underneath a canopy of trees. There are plenty of picnic tables but you may bring your own lawn chairs if you would like. Note that the parking lots are basically in alphabetical order and we are in Parking Lot “O.” There are two adjacent parking areas.

Services will be at 11:00 a.m. followed by a deli-type sandwich lunch.

Our congregation again will provide all the sandwich fixings. We ask our attendees to bring a salad or side dish plus a dessert. A donation box will be there if you want to help defray some of the costs. After lunch, enjoy fellowshiping with each other in nature until you want to leave.

Please note that there will be no services at our regular church facility that day and no local webcast. Flyers with details and directions are on our church website at: orange-county-ca.ucg.org and copies will be available in the Fellowship Hall next Sabbath
