From the President...

Unity and Oneness of Spirit

Greetings brethren,

I am thankful to God and to the Council of Elders for this opportunity to serve in the United Church of God along with each of you. We also wish to again thank our previous president, Rick Shabi, for his tireless efforts to further the mission of the Church.

John Elliott and Rick Shabi at Sabbath services, May 10.

What an incredible operation this is, in which we each play a very important part. As God calls whom He chooses, we individually and collectively get to model and share His words of life with others as opportunities arise.

To effectively model God's love with others, we must be that love. A core element of agape is "peace" which is translated from "eirene" defined in Thayer's as "harmony." Jesus prepared for His crucifixion and asked the Father to help us perform an important task for Him, by using this tool:

"That they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me" (John 17:21-23).

Our Husband has tasked us with showing the world that God sent Him, and the proof is our being perfect in oneness with God and each other. I ask myself if I have fully achieved that, and sadly I have not, yet, done so. While accomplishing oneness may feel like a nice option, we must notice its centrality to each of our callings.

The unity of the Spirit

At a time when the apostle Paul was likewise facing death, he wrote to the Church: "I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called, with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit" (Ephesians 4:1-4).

If we each endeavor to keep the unity of the Spirit in a bond of harmony, we can reflect the selfless love emanating from the Godhead through us as His human family. That agape love links His family in oneness resulting in a continuous building-up of Christ's body of believers with every individual doing his and her share (Ephesians 4:16).

In order for us to be a unified light, we must have a mindset like our most holy Husband, Jesus Christ. "Now may the God of patience and comfort grant you to be like-minded toward one another, according to Christ Jesus, that you may with one mind and one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Romans 15:5-6).

Achieving such oneness requires each individual member in the Body to change his or her mindset. That requires a desire, coupled with understanding, then application of all biblical directives with lifelong effort.

A recent sermon, "Towards Oneness," identifies a starting point to help reveal and replace basic obstacles to harmonious relationships. Then, through personal Bible study, we can locate vital tools and apply them to remove mental barriers and replace them with arms locked together with one another in unity. This is Christ's directive to us. It is also our organization's name.

Our Church ancestors achieved that goal beginning on Pentecost 1,994 years ago. Can we achieve it again in just two short weeks from now at Pentecost 2025? Rapid progress can be made by directing ours mind to view everyone like Jesus does, "who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself His own special people, zealous for good works" (Titus 2:14).

As a tool, I plan to fast just before the double-Sabbaths of Pentecost weekend. I invite you to also do the same with me on May 30, or at another time more convenient for you.

In Christ's service,

John Elliott, President

From Ministerial and Member Services...

Ministerial and Member Services is announcing that former Church president, Rick Shabi, has accepted to transition to serve alongside Richard Kennebeck as assistant pastor for the congregations in Jacksonville and Orlando, Florida until Mr. Kennebeck's retirement.

Rick and Deborah Shabi

Mr. Shabi brings a commitment to serving God's people, along with extensive and well-known experience that will enhance the ministerial team in the area.

In this new role, he will assist in supporting the ongoing spiritual growth and care of the congregations. We look forward to the positive impact this team will have as they work together to serve and strengthen the brethren.

Please join us in welcoming Mr. Shabi to his new responsibilities as he returns to the Orlando and Jacksonville areas where he previously served for many years.

From Mail Processing...

Qualified Charitable Distributions

We wish to share some important information regarding the use of Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs) when donating as part of your Holy Day offerings.

QCDs are distribution of funds from an individual's Individual Retirement Account (IRA) payable directly to a qualified 501(c)(3) charitable organization such as the United Church of God, an International Association (UCGIA).

QCD donations are unique in that they require UCGIA to identify them specifically as QCDs and provide acknowledgement letters to donors instead of receipting them as we would a non-QCD cash donation.

If you choose to use a QCD to make a Holy Day offering, we ask for your assistance as follows:

- Please do not place them in your local congregation's Holy Day offering collection.
- Instead, remit the Holy Day QCD donation directly to UCGIA: United Church of God, P.O. Box 541027, Cincinnati, OH 45254-1027.
- Ensure the donation is clearly labeled as a QCD and the Holy Day offering to which it applies.

We deeply appreciate your faithful support of God's Work through your offerings. If you have any questions regarding QCDs or need assistance with the process, please don't hesitate to contact UCGIA at (513) 576-9796 or email Sarah Howard, donations processing manager, at Sarah Howard@ucg.org.

Brown County Indiana Pentecost Weekend

Final Call for Discount Rate

Thinking about gathering with friends and family for an exciting weekend of spiritual growth, fellowship and celebrating God's Holy Day?

The popular UCG Pentecost Weekend in Brown County, Indiana holds a unique tradition—a cherished time for spiritual growth, fellowship and celebrating God's Holy Day. The weekend includes something for everyone, blending moments of fun with opportunities to connect and share.

Gather with friends and family at our various activities, like the "Potluck in the Park." On Sabbath evening, experience the highlight of the weekend at the inspiring "Concert for God," a powerful event where music and praise for God unite us in reverence and joy. This unforgettable weekend is designed to uplift and deepen your faith as we grow together.

UCG discount rates for the Abe Martin Lodge and the Brown County state park cabins are available and open for reservations through May 20. This year we have the added convenience of a special UCG Pentecost weekend website that includes reservation information, schedules, sign-up capacity for the Concert for God, and more!

Click on pentecostbrowncounty.ucgevents.org for more information.

Special note: to receive the low rates for accommodations, the Brown County staff asks that members call (877) 563-4371 and make reservations through a DNR reservation agent with the UCG group code (if you try to use the online booking option you may not be able to use the discount code 0530UG). Look for the "Book My Stay" section on the website for
