That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

The Age Old Issue: Unbelief despite the Evidence

Now if Christ is preached that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

The Age Old Issue: Unbelief despite the Evidence

'People believe in the Resurrection not because of good evidence (there isn't any) but because, if the Resurrection is not true, Christianity becomes null and void, and their life, they think, meaningless. From this it is grotesquely false logic to conclude that therefore the Resurrection must be true.

The Testimony of Contemporary Scientists

Evidence 1: We have more documents attesting Jesus's resurrection than documents attesting other historical events (e.g. writings by Livy or Tacitus; pp. 84-85), and there are only a few steps between us and the original manuscripts attesting that event (pp. 86-87).

The SPIRIT Defined

A large crowd of people in ancient attire, with a central figure gesturing towards them. The scene is set in a large, open space with stone walls and arches. The crowd is diverse, with men, women, and children of various ages and ethnicities. The central figure, wearing a white robe, has their right arm extended, pointing towards the crowd. The overall atmosphere is one of anticipation and gathering.

For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of POWER [dynamis] and of LOVE and of a SOUND MIND.
