Sabbath Thought

Eccl. 11:9-10, “Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth; walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes; but know that for all these God will bring you into judgment. Therefore, remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh, for childhood and youth are vanity.”

Wiersbe's Commentary brings out, “‘Walk in the ways of your heart’ is not an encouragement to go on a youthful fling and satisfy sinful desires. It is rather a reminder for young people to enjoy the special pleasures that belong to youth and can never be experienced again in quite the same way...The phrase ‘childhood and youth are vanity’ does not mean that these stages in life are unimportant and a waste of time. Quite the opposite is true! The best way to have a happy adult life and a contented old age is to get a good start early in life and avoid the things that will bring trouble later on. Young people who take care of their minds and bodies, avoid the destructive sins of the flesh, and build good habits of health and holiness have a better chance for happy adult years than those who ‘sow their wild oats’ and pray for a crop failure.”
