Sabbath Thought

Eccl. 11:7-8, “Truly the light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to behold the sun; but if a man lives many years and rejoices in them all, yet let him remember the days of darkness, for they will be many. All that is coming is vanity.” A modern version says, “You should enjoy every day of your life, no matter how long you live. But remember that you will die, and you will be dead much longer than you were alive. And after you are dead, you cannot do anything” (ERV).

Believer’s Commentary points out, “The light may refer to the bright and shining days of youth. It’s great to be young—to be healthy, strong, and vivacious. But no matter how many years of vigor and prosperity a man enjoys, he should be aware that days of darkness are almost sure to come. The aches and pains of old age are inevitable.”

BIBLE STUDY NEXT SABBATH

Our continuing Bible study series, now in the book of 1 Corinthians, will be held next Sabbath after services at 4:15 p.m.

CHOIR REHEARSAL TODAY

Attention: Choir members, we will be having choir rehearsal 30 minutes after services today.

SPREADING THE GOOD NEWS OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD

Our next outreach to sow the seeds of God's truth will be at Irvine Spectrum on Sunday, July 27, from 1:00 to 5:00. The outreach will be located in front of the Verizon store.

ZOOM PROPHECY – CHANGE OF DATE THIS TIME TO MONDAY, JULY 28

*NOW---new plans: We will be planning a break shortly before the Feast of Trumpets, BUT---start up again about one and a half weeks after the 8th Day. We now plan to continue until the end of December. We will have a couple of class dates fall on Monday to work around Thanksgiving Weekend and Winter Break time in December. But most classes will normally be on Wednesday. Also Scott Ashley is preparing a series on the Gospels for 2026 and we may once again share that with the entire Southwest Region and those friends that come on board.

Robin Webber, coordinator of the classes, may be reached at robin.webber@mchsi.com and/or robin_webber@ucg.org. Phone number is: (951) 252-4066.

Our Next Session is July 28th (Monday) at 7 p.m., (PDT) -- switching to Monday this one time due to my travel schedule.

1) General Announcement & Invitation---

All of our previous *fifteen classes are now available---including videos, audios, power points, class notes, side bars etc. This link with its package will come in separate email.
