Sabbath Thought

Ecc. 12:1, “Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, before the difficult days come, and the years draw near when you say, ‘I have no pleasure in them.’” A modern version says, “Don’t let the excitement of youth cause you to forget your Creator. Honor him in your youth before you grow old and say, ‘Life is not pleasant anymore’” (NLT).

Wiersbe’s Commentary mentions, “This section admonishes to ‘pay attention with the intention of obeying.’ It is Solomon’s version of Matthew 6:33: ‘But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness’. How easy it is to neglect the Lord when you are caught up in the enjoyments and opportunities of youth. We know that dark and difficult days in old age will come, so we had better lay a good spiritual foundation as early in life as possible. During our youthful years, the sky is bright, but the time will come when there will be in old age one different trial after another.”

BBQ/POTLUCK AUGUST 30

August 30 is the fifth Sabbath of the month and traditionally we try to have a potluck. Brian Higa has again volunteered to provide delicious Korean BBQ meat. The Marinis' region is in charge of other aspects.

SPREADING THE GOOD NEWS OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD

On July 27, and August 3, God allowed a total of 25 people to take UCG booklets and be introduced to His truths. Many thanks to Ray Roberts, Irene Larvie and Jean Marini who volunteered both weeks and Ramona Morrissette and Ron Guizado who volunteered on August 3. Our next outreach to sow the seeds of God's truth will be at the Irvine Spectrum on Sunday, August 17, from 1:00 to 5:00 pm in front of the Verizon Store.

Future plans

We will be planning a break shortly before the Feast of Trumpets, but will start up again about one and a half weeks after the 8th Day. We now plan to continue until the end of December. We will have a couple of class dates on Mondays to work around Thanksgiving Weekend and Winter Break time in December., but most classes will normally be on Wednesday. Also Scott Ashley is preparing a series on the Gospels for 2026 and we may once again share that with the entire Southwest Region and those friends that come on board.
