

HE IS by Mark Graham

He was the Word in the beginning
He was the Father's only son
He was with God and yet he was God
He dreamed of wonders to be done
He and his father made the angels
He and his father had a plan
He made the earth in all its beauty
He made a woman and a man

He made them multiply and prosper
He was with Noah in the flood
He walked with Abraham and Jacob
He made them promises of good
He brought his people down to Egypt
He spoke to Moses of his name
He led his people through the Red Sea
He was the pillar and the flame

He gave the people his commandments
He wrote the words upon the stone
He brought them to the land he promised
He built a nation of his own
He watched them grow into a kingdom
He saw the people turn away

He gave them over to be captives
He let them see a dreadful day

Just when it seemed all hope had vanished
He came to earth and lived with men
He taught the world of love and goodness
He healed the blind and sick and lame
He calmed the sea and raised the dead up
He showed the people how to change
He paid the price for every sinner
He gave his life and rose again

He's calling people to his family
He's sitting at his Father's side
He is our brother and our high priest
He calls us now to be his bride
He will return when things are darkest
He will restore all things again
He will bring light and truth and beauty
He will bring goodness without end
Jesus, before the world's beginning
Jesus, as far as you can see
Jesus, the Lord of all creation
Jesus is all these things to me
