From the President...

My fellow brothers and sisters in Christ,

The autumn feasts of God are momentous markers of God's Kingdom advancing into a world held captive by an imposter-ruler, Satan. The first of these festivals was the Day of Trumpets, picturing when Satan's system will be turned on its head by the true King who owns and who created everything. Christ's merciful call for humanity's repentance (Joel 2:12-17) will sadly be met with global resistance and indignation (Joel 3:9-16, Isaiah 26:20-21).

We are now between the festivals of Trumpets and Atonement. This reflects a prophetic period where Christ's "bowls" of correction for repentance will be rejected by Satan's society during the Day of the Lord (Revelation 11:14-18, 16). A sad escalation of rejection by the deceived will escalate into war against Christ and His bride, resulting in their own devastating defeat (Revelation 19:19-21).

Soon, we will observe God's Day of Atonement, which in part foretells the fall of the architect of lies, deception, murder and hate, who will be bound. He will be bound and sealed away from further influencing the "few men [that] are left" (Isaiah 24:6). Only after his removal can humanity finally experience godly repentance, atonement for sins, and knowledge of God's truth. At last, everyone will finally pursue at-one-ment with God and each other (Isaiah 19:25).

We are extremely blessed to have already begun removing Satan from our lives, and are building oneness with the entire Family of God. Soon, we will observe additional festivals celebrating future eras under which Christ will rule with our participation (Revelation 20:6). We will portray a foretaste of that time at the Feast of Tabernacles by staying in temporary dwellings with abundant blessings, spiritual and physical food, all shared with each other in a unified Body that is edifying itself in love (Ephesians 4:16).

So, let us rejoice every day, living now under the loving authority the Father gave to Jesus. “All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth” (Matthew 28:18). Let us fully devote ourselves to the work He has given His Church: “Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you” Amen (Matthew 28:19-20).

As we walk in God’s light today, let’s be thankful and radiate that light to a spiritually dark world. Let’s step up our love for God and for each other as we celebrate the beauty of lives lived His way. Let’s trim our lamps, increase our lights, and boldly go forward doing all that He commanded. What a great privilege to live under the true God who loves us and promises, “and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age” (verse 20).

Let us celebrate God’s feasts with joy, light and love, fully devoted to His work today and always.

With love in Christ’s service,

John Elliott, President

Sabbath Services Before the Feast of Tabernacles on Oct. 4, 2025

On our website at ucg.org/news/sabbath-services-feast-tabernacles-october-4-2025 is a downloadable PDF showing those U.S. congregations having—or not having—services on Oct. 4, 2025. This is intended to assist those who may be traveling for the Feast.

The map shows which congregations will hold services on Oct. 4 (solid green star) and which have canceled services (outlined red star). While most congregations holding services will meet at their regular times, we encourage you to contact the local pastor in advance to confirm.

Please note: There are no U.S. Feast sites planning Sabbath services on Oct. 4, except Cincinnati and Rapid City—at their regular times and locations.

Sept. 23 Ordinations

We're happy to announce that on September 23, 2025 Michael Messer was ordained into the ministry. He and his wife, Sandy, serve the congregation in Phoenix Northwest, Arizona.
