Sabbath Thought

Ps. 5:8-10, “Lead me, O Lord, in Your righteousness because of my enemies; make Your way straight before my face. For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is destruction; their throat is an open tomb; they flatter with their tongue. Pronounce them guilty, O God! Let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against You.”

Believer's Commentary notes, “Harassed as he is by enemies, David asks the Lord to display His justice by leading him safely through the surrounding danger and making his pathway crystal clear. He gives several reasons why God should vindicate His righteous servant and punish the wicked enemies. (1) You can't believe a word they say...for their inward lives, their thoughts and motives, are utterly corrupt and bent on destruction. (2) They are inveterate and insincere flatterers and their evil schemes should be made to boomerang on themselves. (3) Their numerous sins and above all, their rebellion against God demand their being utterly cast out.”
