United News Weekly - Nov. 5, 2026

We hope you're having a lovely November so far!

Today, we share an update on the camp directors' meetings, which wrapped up this week. You can look forward to even more camp updates in the weeks and months to come!

You'll also find an exciting activity update for the upcoming Winter Family Weekend—the first-ever Fiber Arts Drop-In and Craft Swap!

Finally, today's featured image takes you on a walk down Ambassador Bible College memory lane.

UYC 2027 Camp Directors' Meetings Held

This week at the home office, directors for each of the teen and preteen camps met to discuss next year's program. Each year, it's essential to plan a budget, theme and other details so camp can run smoothly.

Discussions included what the daily themes will be, how to handle unexpected challenges and feedback provided through last year's survey.

Plans are in place to produce the annual camp magazine and video, which will be ready to view as registration time approaches. We hope you'll consider joining us as a camper or on staff at one of our 2027 United Youth Camps!

Winter Family Weekend

Fiber Arts Drop-In and Craft Swap

Looking for a change of pace? Ready to learn a new skill or share one you love? We are thrilled to introduce a brand-new addition to Winter Family Weekend this year: the Fiber Arts Drop-In Space!

Bring a project you're currently working on, or bring extra supplies you're willing to share or swap. We will have supplies available for basic knitting, crocheting, cross-stitching, embroidery and needle felting.

When: Wednesday and Thursday, 3-5 p.m.
Where: Miami Room
Ages: Recommended for ages 8 through adult
