This is not an exhaustive list. A listing is not an endorsement. The list is to help find a place for a quick bite so you can get back to the activities at Spooky Nook.

Some Traffic Tips:

The spots on Main Street are from 1 to 3 miles from Spooky Nook; High Street is also called Rt 129 east of the Miami River.

High Street becomes Main Street west of the Monument and the Miami River. Main Street is also Rt. 177 west of Eaton Ave/Millville Avenue.

Restaurants in and near Hamilton, OH

The spots on Princeton Road are about 3-4 miles from the Nook. Take Rt. 129 east to the BYP 4 exit, which is the first exit, then go north to Princeton Road. Go right to Bridgewater Falls S.C.; go right to those restaurants not listed in BWFSC.

The spots on Erie Blvd are 1-2 miles from the Nook. West Chester is about 13 miles from the Nook.

Turning left onto Rhea Street from the largest Nook parking lot (Lot 1) takes you onto a loop which brings you out on Main Street past some of the downtown congestion.

Continued Traffic Tips:

NW Washington Blvd, which is the first left turn from N. B Street north of Hamilton-Elkton Road, is a 4-lane road that makes a loop and brings you back to Main Street near several restaurants, avoiding some downtown congestion.

More Distant Restaurants:

Below are suggestions for restaurants that are more distant, if you have the time to travel.

Going east on Rt. 129 about 11 miles to the Cincinnati-Dayton Road exit, then south to Tylersville Road, then east again to Liberty Twp Center there are several upscale restaurants.

Continuing east another two miles on Tylersville Road to West Chester, you will find dozens more restaurants, and finally continuing east another three miles on Tylersville Road to Mason-Montgomery Road in Mason, then south you will find a wide variety restaurants.

In the greater Cincinnati area, you can find hundreds of restaurants
