The Passover Story of Exodus

After Joseph died in Egypt a new Pharaoh took over.

This Pharaoh did not know Joseph.

Pharaoh worried that the Israelites were becoming a larger nation than Egypt so he ordered that all Israelites become slaves to the Egyptians.

The Egyptians made the Israelites live a hard and rough life of work!

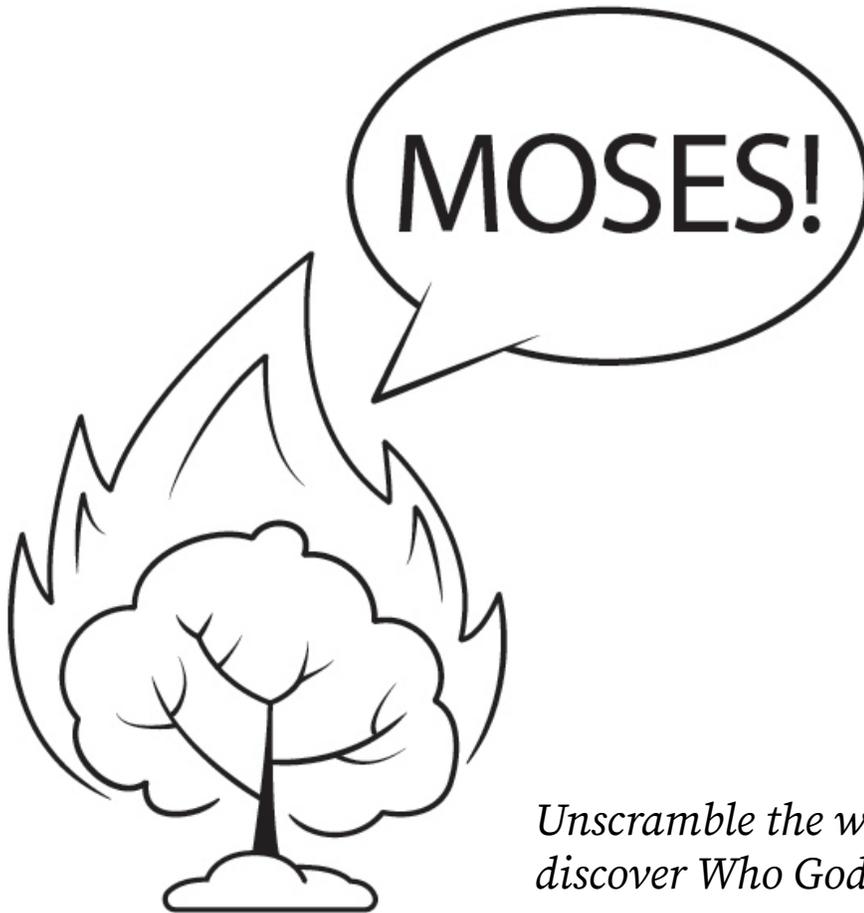

During this time a Hebrew baby boy was found in a basket in the Nile River. Pharaoh's daughter saved him and adopted him.

His name was called Moses.

Many years passed and God's people cried out to Him in their misery. God heard their cries and He remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

God spoke to Moses from a _____ .

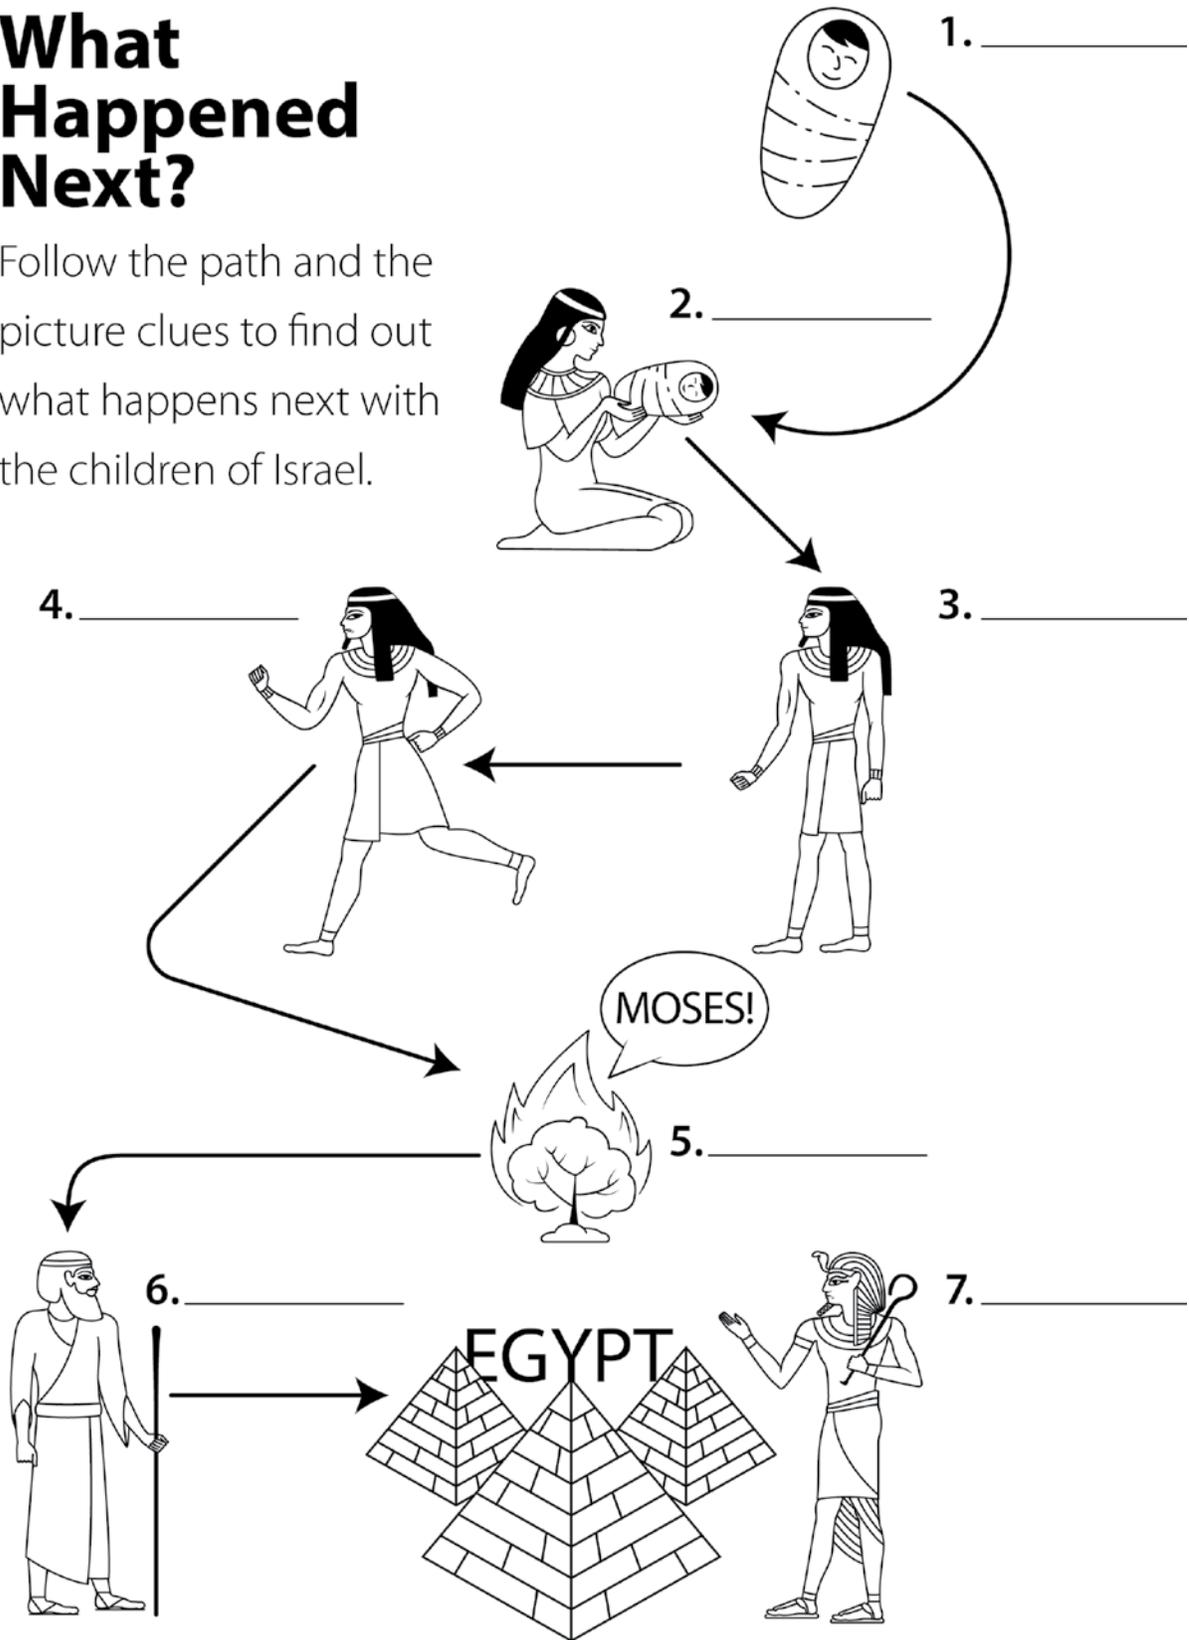

Unscramble the words below to discover Who God said He was.

The very last plague was the death of the firstborn of both man and animals. God gave specific instructions to the Israelites to take a lamb and on the 14th day kill it and smear the blood on their houses.

Directions: Complete the scripture below to find out where the blood was to be placed.

Exodus 12:7

“And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the

_____ and on the

_____ of the houses where they eat it.

Art by James Reamy

On this same night the children of Israel would eat the roasted lamb with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. God told them to not come out of their houses. Those people who had smeared the blood on their houses were saved from death! (Read Exodus 12:13)

Have a wonderful Passover and Days of Unleavened Bread!
