Pray for the Gospel to Have Free Course – The Work of God in Latin America, Part 2: Mario Seiglie, senior pastor for the United Church of God in Latin America, further described how God's work in the region supports the brethren and touches the lives of the people God is calling to His truth. For example, Mr. Seiglie wrote that "during the COVID-19 pandemic, we held an online, two-week, ten-lesson Bible course of 20 hours taught by four instructors—which was attended by 400 students of all ages in 16 Latin American countries.

"Also, in 2021, God's work in the region reached an average of 128,000 monthly unique visitors to the Spanish-language website for a yearly average of 1,545,463 unique visitors. We also had 1,868 YouTube subscribers with 93,000 visits and 18,400 hours watched. Plus, we had 1,627 Facebook followers. While all of this was occurring, regular Bible studies, youth and preteen camps, men's clubs, ladies' clubs and other events and activities took place. In addition, 29 university or other higher education students received LifeNets scholarships in Mexico, Guatemala, Colombia, Chile and Argentina.

"Finally, please pray that God will continue to bless the efforts to spread the gospel message and to care for God's people throughout Latin America."
