Three Year Chronological Deep Dive Reading Program – Week 6 Remarks... from Pastor, Troy Phelps

CATCH UP WEEK

Hello everyone,

After speaking to a number of individuals this week about the current reading program, I have found out that a number of people are running behind on the daily readings, or expected to fall behind this week due to Thanksgiving in the US. I've decided to take a "Catch up week" for week 6 (Nov 27th through Dec 3rd). We are still having people join each week and this will also allow those individuals to catch up some.

We were currently already running a week ahead on our readings and should still finish the program within the three year target.

This will also allow me the opportunity to turn my attention to a number of the questions I've been receiving but not having the time to respond to.

If you are running behind, or new to the program, please use this next week to hopefully get caught up.

Warm regards,

Troy Phelps
