I hope each of you has had a meaningful week of Bible Study. As of the completion of last week’s study, we now sit at over 10% done with our deep-dive study of the Bible! I know I am benefiting greatly from this study, and I hope each of you are as well.

We now start the final week of the book of Exodus and the completion of our third book of the Bible as part of our chronological order.

You will notice much less deep dive material this week as on many days we are essentially going over the production of the Tabernacle, instruments, and garments that God had previously provided Moses with the instructions on. I don’t want to duplicate comments on the same essential material.
